HORSES IN TRAINING.

Sunday seems to have been all along the line a favorable day for giving the racers the kind of exercise that fits them for the active work close at hand. Of some of the work done near New York, Morning Telegraph says:

"With clear skies, a pleasant atmosphere and perfect tracks the trainers at the Gravesend and Sheephead Bay courses had nothing to complain of in the weather yesterday. The roads in the vicinity were frozen and as hard as nails, and nothing in a training way could be attempted on them, so the runners took to the tracks, which were in perfect shape, and some good galloping was the result.

"Trainer and owner Eugene Leigh selected the day for his runners, and several of them were sent down the line at conspicuously good speed. May Hempstead, who looks in fine condition, was allowed a six furlong turn in 1:24. The great mare stepped her paces like the racer that she is, and Mr. Leigh will have her ready when her engagements are carded.

"Bold Knight, a late acquisition to Mr. Leigh's stable, and Nansen reeled off a quarter in 25 seconds. The three-year-olds, Ildrim and Vulcan, turned a quarter handily in 24 1/2 seconds. King Bumble did the same distance in 24 1/2 seconds. Lady Contrary did the five furlongs course in 1:07, and Mr. Leigh was much pleased with the way in which she did her work. The youngster Silurian, by Belvidere—Virgie D., and another turned a quarter in 24 1/2 seconds.

"Mr. Leigh's horses are in the finest possible shape, and when he is ready they are sure to respond.

"Trainer Miller of the M. F. Dwyer string was quick to take advantage of the pleasant conditions of the weather and track, and his horses got all that was coming to them in the way of work. The speedy mare Satin Slipper, that has taken the measure of many sprinters in her racing career, breezed over the six furlongs course in 1:25. Trumpet, who has wintered in conspicuously good shape, was asked the same distance in 1:21. This three-year-old has speed enough to go with the best when the stakes are run. Shortham, by Albert—Duchess May, should not be overlooked.

"Harry Reed, well known by all race goers, rattled off a half in 53 1/2 seconds. The old racer looks in tiptop shape, and he did his paces with a lot of dash. The two-year-olds Broadway, Ethics and Shawnee turned the half mile route in 54 1/2 seconds.

"Newton Bennington's string, in the care of trainer Fred Berlew, got a good training day of it.

"The youngsters Himyarite, by Himyar—Grace Lee; Bollerio, by Belvidere—Madge Stuart; and Mariana, by Jim Gray—Counter Breeze, rattled off the half mile course in 52 1/2 seconds. Bessie Taylor and Long Isle negotiated six furlongs in 1:21. The two-year-olds Edna J. and Antithesis turned a half in 54 seconds.

"Trainer and Owner Frank Taylor, who has been wintering his racers at Saratoga, came to the open with his runners at an early hour. Waring, which is the stable's crack three-year-old, was asked the half mile route in 53 1/2 seconds. The son of Masetto—The Sweeper looks in splendid shape. Precursor, by Prince of Monaco—Promenade, got from the Fleischmann string last year, reeled off a half in 54 seconds. Gold Lace also did a half in 54 seconds. Tillo, the Suburban winner, appears to be in splendid health. In trainer Taylor's hands he is the Tillo of old. He is as robust and muscular as ever and he is such a gentleman that a child can play with him with impunity. To all appearances he is as sound as a dollar and he should race under trainer Taylor's hands much to the good.

"W. M. Barrick's Omnibus and other youngsters did the half distance in 52 1/2 seconds. El Steed's two-year-old Gold Prince and a stable mate were sent a half in 52 1/2 seconds. Graves' Handicap candidate, Box, got a six furlongs turn in 1:25. The P. J. Dwyer, Mossom and Morris strings had a slow training day of it."

At Louisville the track was fast and training work active, the principal feature being a mile trial given Lieutenant Gibson. Charley Hughes, his trainer, waited until all the other owners and trainers had got through with their morning work and then he had Gibson brought out. A murmur of admiration was heard as the beautiful brown colt galloped around the track preparatory to warming up. Mr. Hughes gave his friends to understand that he would send Lieutenant Gibson three-quarters of a mile at least, if not further, faster than any horse had yet been sent at the track. Scores of watches were held on the colt as Charley Hughes gave Gibson's jockey the signal to cut him loose, and a cry went up, "He's off!"

The boy had a double wrap on the colt; still, the great thoroughbred reeled off the first quarter in 25 seconds. Then he went on to the half in 50 seconds flat and to the three quarters in 1:17.

Around the turn and into the stretch he came fighting all the time for his head. At the eighth pole Charley Hughes, with watch in hand, and not desiring to work the colt too fast, got out on the track, and, with his hat, flagged him. As it was the colt finished out the mile in 1:44, but could easily have negotiated the distance in 1:43.

Trainer Wimmer, of the Whitney stable, had all his horses out, Jean Beraud at the head of the string. He has completely recovered from his lameness and is in the best of condition.

He was at the head of a string of six or seven flying around the track, setting the pace for the other fast ones, none of which could get near him. With his long, easy stride he kept going away from the others with his head pulled away around to his side.

Miller Henderson's Rifle is about as fine a looking horse as there is at the track. He is a big animal, and the strides he takes are something extraordinary. He is in fine condition, and will no doubt take down some of the money at the spring meeting here.

Old Cyclone, who is now 12 years of age, is being trained every day and is good for several more purses, it is thought.

Rush, Donald Bain, Jim Flood, High Noon, Anna Bain, Eddie Burke, John Bright, Azucena, Eberhart, Tolstoi and others of the prominent division were out and did good work.

At Memphis: A lot of good work was done in preparation for the opening of the meeting on Thursday. Of the Montgomery Handicap candidates the best move was made by Duke of Baden, who went a mile and a furlong in 1:59, the first mile in 1:45 and the last in 1:45 1/2. Some timers made the last mile half a second faster, but the work was done easily and in impressive style. Belle of Memphis was worked a mile in 1:45, tiring slightly at the end. She will be a factor in the race. Greatland's mile in 1:47 was not at all satisfactory, and this horse can be counted on having no more than an outside chance.

Crocket worked a mile in 1:46 and with handy weight up she will take no little beating. Ed Tipton went a mile in 1:45 1/2. He hung fire in the early part and his work altogether was not encouraging. He may improve, as he will need to do, in his final work out on Tuesday. On Saturday Jolly Roger did a mile in 1:46. This horse has been getting a good preparation, and is almost certain to be a contender. Cherry Leaf also worked on Saturday a mile and a furlong in 2:01, the last mile in 1:46, and going in better form than he has yet done.

Lamplighted and Florizar, Derby candidates, each made a mile in 1:47, Florizar with about 117 pounds up. Shrove Tuesday, an Oaks candidate, showed a handy mile in 1:48. This latter filly does not seem to be in the best of shape, but there is time for her to improve. The Lady in Blue, Knightbanneret, Wild Pirate and Viscount all worked cleverly enough to seem to be worth following. For the Gaston Hotel Stakes Handwork, Alard Scheck and Ampere are the most forward. These are considered the best colts here. Alard Scheck breezed a very easy half in :51.

ELIZABETH KLEIN BREAKS DOWN.

The fast sister of Traverser, of whom so much was expected this year, met with an accident at Memphis Monday that retired her from the turf. Concerning it and other turf matters, a Memphis dispatch of Monday night says:

"Elizabeth Klein, one of the most prominent of the western Oaks candidates, is now out of the list. The big sister of Traverser broke one of her fore ankles at Montgomery Park this morning. The filly was out to be worked a mile, and after going half the distance through the deep sand she faltered. As a matter of fact the filly had broken down, but the boy who was on her seemed to think that she was trying to loaf and urged her on. She took a few strides, when the bone in her ankle snapped. The filly, which is the property of C. F. Buschmeyer, a druggist of Louisville, was being trained by Hiram Pierce. She is one of the best fillies in the west, and an effort will be made to save her. There were several other mishaps at the track. Almark, the steeplechase jockey, while taking Chenier over the jumps, got an ugly fall, as a result of which his collar bone was broken. J. E. Cline, while being worked in the deep sand, also went down, but he as well as his rider escaped serious injury. Tom Ryan got in this morning from Nashville with his string, which includes The Roman, a Montgomery Handicap candidate.

"Stream, one of the Schorr candidates for the opening day's big event, was given his final prep for it this morning, and his work was most impressive. With F. W. Brode as a running mate he went the handicap distance, one mile and a sixteenth, in 1:50 1/2, doing the last mile in 1:43 1/2. He did the work in handy fashion. Burns rode him and he had up close to his weight. F. W. Brode stayed with him the first half a mile and then tired, as he has been doing in all his recent gallops. Jolly Roger worked a mile in company with Miss Patron. There was a big difference in weight in favor of the mare, but she kept pace right along with Roger, and he had to be punched out to beat her the mile in 1:46 1/2. The work was not very encouraging, but Tucker's colt may race better than he works.

"Hops' Laudeman's colt Cambrian did a mile in 1:48, and Thrive covered the same distance in 1:45 1/2, with something like 125 pounds up. Paddy Tomlinson's two-year-old Sir Dixon filly Queen Dixon worked half a mile in 50 1/2 seconds, splendid work considering the condition of the track. What the track needs, and needs badly, is a good, heavy rain between now and Thursday morning. In that event the track will be in good condition for the opening day's racing. Jockey Wedderstrand, with his mother, arrived here today. As Mrs. H. D. Brown is here with her string, the presumption is that

CALIFORNIA TRACK TALK.

Yellow Tail has had the benefit of a six weeks' rest. He has developed into a good appearing race horse and now looks fifty per cent. better than at any previous time in his career. Fred Foster will not start the son of Watercress and Paloma until the Chicago meetings. He has great expectation for the California colt, who has run five furlongs in 59 1/2 seconds and six furlongs, with 123 pounds up, in 1:13 as a two-year-old. In his three-year-old form Yellow Tail beat an all-age field seven furlongs in 1:23 with 123 pounds in the saddle and won at a mile over Advance Guard and F. W. Brode in 1:39 1/2.

Ed Corrigan has definitely decided upon his stable for England. It will consist of Geyer, Corsini, Chimura, Daisy F., Adolph Spreckels, Golden Rule and two two-year-olds. There is a probability of taking either St. Casimir or Sardine. Golden Rule has developed in splendid style and, if he lives up to his form of 1899, should certainly gain fame for California, the land of his birth.

Bannockburn, the greatest race horse of the present season, Fly By Night, Nance O'Neil and Winyah were shipped to St. Louis Friday morning. Bannockburn is to be used in the stud for a short time and then trained for the campaign this summer. In the same car O'Neill & Givens, who own Frank Bell and Elba, sent their horses to St. Louis.

The following names have been claimed for California bred two-year-olds in England: Lothian Lassie, ch. f. by Midlothian—Pandora; Can Can, b. f. by Candlemas—Miss Motley; Missing Star, by Star Ruby—Hiatus; Despite, ch. c. by Tyrant—Gladiola II.; Royal Fate, ch. c. by Kismet—Royal Purple; Bethulie, ch. g. by July—Beth Dunbar.

At the previous meeting at Oakland the ring dropped something like $75,000, but if the present state of affairs continues it will not take them long to recoup themselves. The book-makers have had a wonderful break at this meeting.

Gaffney, set down by the judges the other day for his ride on Louise Hayman, has been restored to good standing. John Campbell, who employs him, says Gaffney has ridden ten races of which he won two and was never out of the money.

John Clifford is the latest arrival from Los Angeles. He has two maidens by Conveth. One is a bay colt, dam Maggie Moore, and Bute is a bay gelding, dam Lizzie Glen. Jockey See also came up from the citrus belt.

The first foal sired by Victor, son of Brutus, has been dropped at Santa Anita. It is a colt and out of Oneka Maid, a half sister to Prince of Melbourne. Oneka Maid was bred in Kentucky and is by Oneko.

The judges have decided to permit Rapido, which was barred for bleeding, to start in future. Since he bled at Oakland he has started a number of times at Tanforan and pulled up all right.

Little Mills, who was beaten a head on the 100 to 1 chance, Bavassa, promises to be in demand. Gill Summers, who gave Henry his first mount on Lavator, has Mills under engagement.

There will be running races at all the California district fairs this year and there should be enough horses remaining in the state to make up good contests.

W. B. Jennings leaves for the east next Sunday. He will take a carload, which will include Bendoran, Anjou, Andria, Flower of Gold and Vesuvius.

Jockey Thorpe will be able to be out inside of a week. He is rapidly convalescing.

NEWPORT'S NEW SECRETARY.

"Roger Sullivan will act as secretary of the Queen City Jockey Club at Newport this season," says the Enquirer of yesterday.

"Mr. Sullivan was appointed to the position yesterday at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the track in Newport.

"The Board of Directors was also named yesterday. Those selected were: Mayor R. W.
Nelson, of Newport; Frank P. Helm, president of the First National Bank, Covington; Henry E. Queen, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, Covington; George C. Bennett, the well known turfman, Memphis, Tenn., and Roger Sullivan, Covington.

"Mayor Nelson was re-elected president;
H. E. Queen, vice-president; Frank P. Helm, treasurer, and F. F. Fowler, general manager.
The following gentlemen will complete the executive committee: R. W. Nelson, Frank P.
Helm and H. E. Queen. Mayor Nelson will be the chairman of the committee.

"From the above it will be seen that the affairs of the Queen City Jockey Club will be conducted by representative business men of Covington and Newport, who have thousands of dollars invested in the track and are willing to use their best efforts to put racing back to its old standard in the locality, with the liberal support of the local race-going public.

"Last fall the racing at Newport showed big improvement over former seasons, and the prospects look most favorable for the meeting at that track which opens on May 21. This will be the beginning of the spring season of 1900 on the local tracks, and as both Newport and Latonia have curtailed their dates to a considerable extent, it is to be hoped that good results will follow. Altogether there will be but thirty-nine days' racing in this vicinity in the spring.

"In years gone by thirty-day meetings were held at both tracks. Under the new agreement entered into by Latonia and Newport the dates have been cut in two. By this plan the racing promoters expect to revive interest in the sport, and if possible put Cincinnati to the front as one of the best racing points in America.
Following the custom in vogue out east the Queen City track will have an official handicapper this season to arrange the daily racing programmes."

Torsina was badly managed and otherwise might have been second. Mallakwa is not ready, yet showed some speed. Bonibel also showed quite a burst of speed.

Winner—Br. c. by Boundless—Parolee.
Went to post at 3:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Boundlee was best in the mud and ran under restraint for the first three furlongs. When called on he drew away like a shot. My Gypsy ran a game race, but was outclassed in the going. Mountbank was taken to the outside on the last turn, losing four or five lengths. Tekla showed some early speed, but is best on dry going.

Formero showed improved form and ran a good race. Imperious was ridden hard from start to finish, but did not show his usual speed in such going. Anjou ran well under a strong ride for six furlongs, then tired. Bathos could not extend himself in the mud.

Went to post at 4:20. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second handily. Peace broke well, liked the going and was never in trouble. Cormorant was none too well ridden and lost ground in making for the path on the outside of the last turn. Momentum finished strongly. Good Hope also finished well. Matt Hogan showed quite a burst of speed but tired in the stretch. Pat Morrissey got off badly and was in the deepest going most of the way. His rider was suspended pending an investigation.

with a great rush. Alas showed great speed and seemed a sure winner when turning for home but tired near the end. Silver Tone was in the deep going and ran a fair race. Obsidian dropped back suddenly just after passing the half. Montanus was cut off on the first turn and was never a contender.

Scratched—17180 Snips, 110; 17175 Prestome, 96.

Went to post at 3:20. At post 5 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second driving. The field was strung out at the start with Conover and X Ray off running. Golden Rattle was slow to get to going but under a hustling ride he gradually wore his field down and in the last sixteenth was drawing away. Jack Gay and Rough Rider contended closely for second place all through the stretch. Jack Gay barely managed to last long enough. X Ray had every advantage but five eighths is as far as he likes.
